1 Corinthians 12-14

Welcome to EQUIP19

Have you read 1 Corinthians 12-14 before? It's the great go-to text on spiritual gifts!

It's such an encouragement to read that each one of us is gifted. But read a little further and there's a few surprises. Like, the idea that my gift is not for me. Or even more challenging, that sometimes I shouldn't use my gift!

In a culture that worships self-expression and celebrates talent, the topic of spiritual gifts is tantalising but often misunderstood. Today's three talks will help us look carefully at this wonderful text.

Talk 1: Is my gift spiritual? (Ch12)

Talk 2: What's more important than my gift? (Ch13)

Talk 3: How should I use (or not use) my gift? (Ch14)

Though Paul wrote these words hundreds of years ago, we'll find them still fresh and when rightly understood, they will equip us to love one another in our churches. So, can I encourage you to see today as a beginning; keep talking and praying together about what you've learnt. Let's help one another apply God's good word to every part of our lives.

Meet our speakers

ANNABEL NIXEY lives in Canberra where her husband Simon is a minister at Crossroads Christian Church. Annabel is a regular speaker at EQUIP women and other conferences, and occasional blogger at our EQUIP Book Club and the Australian Church Record. She enjoys days out with her family exploring the country around Canberra, and craves both sleep and tea in as much quantity as possible!

CARMELINA READ has been married to Jeff for 26 years and they have four children. Her life is full caring for her family, elderly parents and her church family at Chatswood Presbyterian. Carmelina is the Dean of Women at Christ College and founded the Ministry Training for Women course. In her free time she cooks Italian food, runs and is a karate enthusiast.

CAITLIN ORR is currently serving as an assistant minister at Watsons Bay Anglican where she is doing what she loves: evangelism and exploring ways to connect with community. Caitlin is married to Lachlan who works for City Bible Forum in Sydney. When not working or hanging with friends and family, Caitlin enjoys reading, watching DVD series and listening to atrocious pop music.

Bible Reading 1

1 CORINTHIANS 12 (NIV)

<sup>1</sup> Now about the gifts of the Spirit, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. <sup>2</sup> You know that when you were pagans, somehow or other you were influenced and led astray to mute idols. <sup>3</sup> Therefore I want you to know that no one who is speaking by the Spirit of God says, “Jesus be cursed,” and no one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” except by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>4</sup> There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit distributes them. <sup>5</sup> There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord. <sup>6</sup> There are different kinds of working, but in all of them and in everyone it is the same God at work.

<sup>7</sup> Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good. <sup>8</sup> To one there is given through the Spirit a message of wisdom, to another a message of knowledge by means of the same Spirit, <sup>9</sup> to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by that one Spirit, <sup>10</sup> to another miraculous powers, to another prophecy, to another distinguishing between spirits, to another speaking in different kinds of tongues, and to still another the interpretation of tongues. <sup>11</sup> All these are the work of one and the same Spirit, and he distributes them to each one, just as he determines.

<sup>12</sup> Just as a body, though one, has many parts, but all its many parts form one body, so it is with Christ. <sup>13</sup> For we were all baptized by one Spirit so as to form one body—whether Jews or Gentiles, slave or free—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink. <sup>14</sup> Even so the body is not made up of one part but of many.

<sup>15</sup> Now if the foot should say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” it would not for that reason stop being part of the body.

Bible Reading 1

1 CORINTHIANS 12 (NIV)

<sup>16</sup> And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," it would not for that reason stop being part of the body. <sup>17</sup> If the whole body were an eye, where would the sense of hearing be? If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be? <sup>18</sup> But in fact God has placed the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be. <sup>19</sup> If they were all one part, where would the body be? <sup>20</sup> As it is, there are many parts, but one body.

<sup>21</sup> The eye cannot say to the hand, "I don't need you!" And the head cannot say to the feet, "I don't need you!" <sup>22</sup> On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, <sup>23</sup> and the parts that we think are less honorable we treat with special honor. And the parts that are unpresentable are treated with special modesty, <sup>24</sup> while our presentable parts need no special treatment. But God has put the body together, giving greater honor to the parts that lacked it, <sup>25</sup> so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other. <sup>26</sup> If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it.

<sup>27</sup> Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it. <sup>28</sup> And God has placed in the church first of all apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, of helping, of guidance, and of different kinds of tongues. <sup>29</sup> Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? <sup>30</sup> Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? <sup>31</sup> Now eagerly desire the greater gifts.

1 CORINTHIANS 13 (NIV)

<sup>1</sup> If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. <sup>2</sup> If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. <sup>3</sup> If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

<sup>4</sup> Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. <sup>5</sup> It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. <sup>6</sup> Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. <sup>7</sup> It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

<sup>8</sup> Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. <sup>9</sup> For we know in part and we prophesy in part, <sup>10</sup> but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. <sup>11</sup> When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. <sup>12</sup> For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

<sup>13</sup> And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

1 CORINTHIANS 14 (NIV)

<sup>1</sup> Follow the way of love and eagerly desire gifts of the Spirit, especially prophecy. <sup>2</sup> For anyone who speaks in a tongue does not speak to people but to God. Indeed, no one understands them; they utter mysteries by the Spirit. <sup>3</sup> But the one who prophesies speaks to people for their strengthening, encouraging and comfort. <sup>4</sup> Anyone who speaks in a tongue edifies themselves, but the one who prophesies edifies the church. <sup>5</sup> I would like every one of you to speak in tongues, but I would rather have you prophesy. The one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues, unless someone interprets, so that the church may be edified.

<sup>6</sup> Now, brothers and sisters, if I come to you and speak in tongues, what good will I be to you, unless I bring you some revelation or knowledge or prophecy or word of instruction? <sup>7</sup> Even in the case of lifeless things that make sounds, such as the pipe or harp, how will anyone know what tune is being played unless there is a distinction in the notes? <sup>8</sup> Again, if the trumpet does not sound a clear call, who will get ready for battle? <sup>9</sup> So it is with you. Unless you speak intelligible words with your tongue, how will anyone know what you are saying? You will just be speaking into the air. <sup>10</sup> Undoubtedly there are all sorts of languages in the world, yet none of them is without meaning. <sup>11</sup> If then I do not grasp the meaning of what someone is saying, I am a foreigner to the speaker, and the speaker is a foreigner to me. <sup>12</sup> So it is with you. Since you are eager for gifts of the Spirit, try to excel in those that build up the church.

<sup>13</sup> For this reason the one who speaks in a tongue should pray that they may interpret what they say. <sup>14</sup> For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful. <sup>15</sup> So what shall I do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my understanding; I will sing with my spirit, but I will also sing with my understanding. <sup>16</sup> Otherwise when you are praising God in the Spirit, how can someone else, who is now put in the position of an inquirer, say "Amen" to your thanksgiving, since they do not know what you are saying? <sup>17</sup> You are giving thanks well enough, but no one else is edified.

Bible Reading 3

1 CORINTHIANS 14 (NIV)

<sup>18</sup> I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you. <sup>19</sup> But in the church I would rather speak five intelligible words to instruct others than ten thousand words in a tongue.

<sup>20</sup> Brothers and sisters, stop thinking like children. In regard to evil be infants, but in your thinking be adults. <sup>21</sup> In the Law it is written:

“With other tongues
and through the lips of foreigners
I will speak to this people,
but even then they will not listen to me,
says the Lord.”

<sup>22</sup> Tongues, then, are a sign, not for believers but for unbelievers; prophecy, however, is not for unbelievers but for believers. <sup>23</sup> So if the whole church comes together and everyone speaks in tongues, and inquirers or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are out of your mind? <sup>24</sup> But if an unbeliever or an inquirer comes in while everyone is prophesying, they are convicted of sin and are brought under judgment by all, <sup>25</sup> as the secrets of their hearts are laid bare. So they will fall down and worship God, exclaiming, “God is really among you!”

<sup>26</sup> What then shall we say, brothers and sisters? When you come together, each of you has a hymn, or a word of instruction, a revelation, a tongue or an interpretation. Everything must be done so that the church may be built up. <sup>27</sup> If anyone speaks in a tongue, two—or at the most three—should speak, one at a time, and someone must interpret. <sup>28</sup> If there is no interpreter, the speaker should keep quiet in the church and speak to himself and to God.

<sup>29</sup> Two or three prophets should speak, and the others should weigh carefully what is said. <sup>30</sup> And if a revelation comes to someone who is sitting down, the first speaker should stop. <sup>31</sup> For you can all prophesy in turn so that everyone may be instructed and encouraged. <sup>32</sup> The spirits of prophets are subject to the control of prophets. <sup>33</sup> For God is not a God of disorder but of peace—as in all the congregations of the Lord’s people.

1 CORINTHIANS 14 (NIV)

<sup>34</sup> Women should remain silent in the churches. They are not allowed to speak, but must be in submission, as the law says. <sup>35</sup> If they want to inquire about something, they should ask their own husbands at home; for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in the church.

<sup>36</sup> Or did the word of God originate with you? Or are you the only people it has reached? <sup>37</sup> If anyone thinks they are a prophet or otherwise gifted by the Spirit, let them acknowledge that what I am writing to you is the Lord’s command. <sup>38</sup> But if anyone ignores this, they will themselves be ignored.

<sup>39</sup> Therefore, my brothers and sisters, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. <sup>40</sup> But everything should be done in a fitting and orderly way.

HOW SHOULD I USE MY GIFT?

Speaker
CAITLIN ORR

1. Two commands (v.1)

2. Desire gifts that build up the church (vv.1–19)

- Gifts that build are greater (vv.2–5)
- Gifts that are intelligible build the church (vv.6–12)
- And remember... it's not about you (vv.13–19)

3. Desire gifts that build the church (vv.20–25)

4. When you gather use your gifts in ways that build up and build the church (vv.26–40)

EQUIP Book Picks

10 BOOKS WORTH BUYING AND READING

Captivated by Christ, Richard Chin

“No other NT letter has shaped my life and ministry more than Colossians.”

A devotional commentary with practical applications that focus our attention and lives on Jesus.

God: The Doctrine of God for Every Woman, Rebecca Stark

This book is part of a new series on doctrine, written by women for women. It's a meaty but very accessible introduction to the deep and sometimes difficult truths that the Bible teaches us about God himself.

God's Good Design, 2nd edition, Claire Smith

A detailed commentary on 7 key Bible passages about men and women. More than ever, a must-read. Now with a new discussion guide to help you read and learn together with other women.

The Essential Jesus

Did you know that Luke's gospel has more stories of Jesus' encounters with women than any other? This translation by Tony Payne reads beautifully and is a wonderful introduction to the most influential man that ever lived. It also has two modern testimonies from women included.

EQUIP Essential Classic - Suffering Well, Paul Grimmond

This book is more like a vaccine than a cure for suffering. No-one is immune and everyone suffers at some time – so, we all need to read this book! Not new but timelessly helpful.

Why bother with church? Sam Allberry

A short book that's both real and hopeful, as it explains from the Bible this thing called church – and why it's both frustrating and wonderful to belong.

Goodbye to Goodbyes, Lauren Chandler

Something rare but needed. A children's book on death and the hope Jesus brings. Beautifully illustrated too.

Identity Theft, Edited by Melissa Kruger

This volume explores what the Bible has to say about our true identity, who we are in Christ. Every chapter is written by a different woman on a different false identity that the world promotes. Discussion questions at the end of each chapter make it a great book to read together.

The Book Your Pastor Wishes You Would Read, Christopher Ash

This little book reminds us that pastors are people too. Ash explores what Hebrews 13:7 means and encourages a healthy two-way dynamic where all can grow in Christ-likeness.

Is God Green? Lionel Windsor

To compost or not? Have you ever wondered is God green? Lionel Windsor takes us through what the Bible says about our environment – why it's a mess, where it's headed and what to do about it in the here and now.

EQUIP Library

www.equip.org.au/equip-library

The EQUIP Library is designed to provide biblical, high quality and timeless resources for local church women's ministry.

Launching soon in 2019, you'll be able to find material from our previous conferences, including talks and videos.

We'll also be releasing resources to support your local church women's ministry, including Bible studies, reading guides, and templates for evangelistic talks.

EQUIP Nights

www.equip.org.au/equip-nights

EQUIP Nights are designed to encourage women currently leading (or preparing to lead) Bible study groups in their church, workplace, campus or home, as this is a vital weekly ministry that influences so many women.

In February 2019, we launched our first EQUIP Nights, with hundreds of women studying 'Women's Ministry: what, why and who?'

Our next EQUIP Nights is on Monday 26 August 2019 at Moore College, Newtown.

We'll be exploring 'God's word: what, why and how'.

We all know the Bible is central to everything we do, but exactly why?

How does the word of God in our Bibles relate to the word of God in Jesus?

How does the Bible shape our weekly groups?

Does it matter whether we call our groups 'growth groups' or 'life groups' or 'Bible study groups'?

Come along to find out more! Even better, grab a group of women from church and come together!

EQUIP 1999-2019

In 1999, the Young Evangelical Women's Conference (YEWOC) began with 135 women from all over Sydney, gathering together one Saturday at Moore Theological College for a day of Bible teaching by women for women.

Lots has changed since that Saturday. In 2004, we changed our name to EQUIP. In 2009, we started our online bookclub, which has since blogged its way through an incredible collection. We now run 4 annual conferences – EQUIP women with EQUIP teens, EQUIP ministry wives and EQUIP leaders. EQUIP women is livestreamed by over 2000 women around Australia and New Zealand. We even offer live Auslan and Mandarin interpretation.

But some things stay the same. Our goal that first day in 1999 is still our goal today...

*“To encourage women to love the gospel,
love each other, and trust the Bible.”*

Overcomers Outreach

Overcomers Outreach (OO) is a safe and confidential group supporting:

- anyone who is trying to overcome an addiction of any nature - either substance or behavioural
- anyone who is caring for a loved one who is struggling with addiction

As a bridge between churches and the 12-step community, OO is a vital and unique Christian ministry founded in 2006 by Penny Wilkinson, who practices as an Addiction and Trauma Recovery Specialist.

Thanks in part to EQUIP's contributions to OO, www.theovercomersplace.com is launching in 2020! This will be a free service in the community that treats all addictions by providing group therapy with specialised counsellors.
